CHADACRE	Boxted	AK	The Civil Parish of Boxted	Street Farm Barn, The Street, Boxted, IP29 4JY	Dr. L Skioldebrand by email – There are too many polling stations in the area and, in times of austerity, it is appropriate to consider reducing them	Boxted has had its own polling station for many years. There are 94 electors in Boxted, (roughly a quarter of whom are registered to vote by post) and turnout was 37% at the most recent elections. The current premises are not fully accessible for wheelchair users. The nearest alternative is the Boxted and Hartest Village Hall, approximately 1.5 miles away. Suggest, if minded to cease providing a polling station in Boxted, that further consultation be undertaken with residents

DODNASH	Bentley	AG	The Civil Parish of Bentley	Village Hall, Capel Road, Bentley, IP9 2BL		Supports current arrangements
	East Bergholt (East)	BC	That part of the Civil Parish of East Bergholt generally north and/or east of the line formed by Slough Road, the track that leads east to west from Sandy Lane to Martin's House, East End Road, East End Road itself, eastwards to the track to Meadow Cottages opposite Home Farm, northwards along that track and the path beyond Meadow Cottages that joins the track serving Elm Farm; thence eastwards as far as the junction with the track leading from East End Road to Norton's Barn at the point where it intersects the unmade path that runs north-eastwards from the southern end of Putticks Lane, from there eastwards to the footbridge over Stutton Brook which is the point at which the line again meets the Civil Parish boundary.	The Grange Caravan Park, Straight Road, East Bergholt, CO7 6UX		Ownership of the Park has recently changed and the shop premises that were previously used for taking the poll are no longer available. The premises are adequate but the Clubhouse is located a considerable walking distance down a track at the northern end of the site whereas the shop is just inside the entrance from East End Road. The majority of the 344 electors of East End live in the Broom Knoll area, which is roughly the same distance from Brantham Methodist Church in Gravel Pit Lane, Brantham as it is from The Grange. The roads to the Methodist Church, however, are significantly better, East End Lane being narrow and without a path on either side. On balance, the use of the Methodist Church is supported, although it is recognised that this may provoke a call for additional polling facilities in Brantham, particularly in the vicinity of Gravel Pit Lane
	East Bergholt (West)	BD	The remainder of the Civil Parish of East Bergholt not included in the area described above.	The Lambe School, Gaston Street, East Bergholt, CO7 6SD		Supports current arrangements

GLEMSFORD & STANSTEAD	Glemsford	BH	The Civil Parish of Glemsford	Village Hall, Tye Green, Glemsford, CO10 7RH		Supports current arrangements
	Stanstead	CV	The Civil Parish of Stanstead	Community Centre, The Hill, Stanstead, CO10 9AP	Stanstead Parish Council by email – current arrangements are adequate and satisfactory	Supports current arrangements
GREAT CORNARD (NORTH)	Great Cornard (North Ward)	AZ	That part of the parish south of Newton Road and Cat's Lane and north of the line running east from the River Stour through the Mill Stream at Cornard Mill, eastwards along the centre line of Mill Tye to the junction with Bures Road, then southwards along Bures Road to the junction with Head Lane; thence eastwards along the centre line of Head Lane and Canhams Road to the junction of Canhams Road with The Drift; from there, northwards along the line formed by The Drift and Hartest Way to the junction of Hartest Way with Pot Kiln Road; thence eastwards along the centre line of Pot Kiln Road as far as its junction with Raydon Way and eastwards along the middle of Raydon Way to its junction with Shawlands Avenue and then northwards along the centre line of Shawlands Avenue to the parish boundary at the junction with Newton Road.	The Stevenson Centre, Stevenson Approach, Broom Street, Great Cornard, CO10 0JT	Great Cornard Parish Council in a letter dated 3 August 2011 stated that it would prefer to see two polling places for each ward and proposed that Pot Kiln School and the Stevenson Centre should be used for the North ward and the Wells Hall Old School and perhaps the new rugby club for the South ward	The Stevenson Centre has adequate facilities for the purposes of taking the poll, although access is not ideal. The Pot Kiln School could provide good additional facilities, particularly when the new access from Poplar Road has been constructed. The school could serve a polling district north of the line formed by Church Road, Pot Kiln Road and Raydon Way, which would place around 2,100 electors at the school and 1,300 at the Stevenson Centre. I support the provision of the additional polling station at Pot Kiln Primary School.

GREAT CORNARD (SOUTH)	Great Cornard (South Ward)		The remainder of the civil parish of Great Cornard south of the line described above.	The Stevenson Centre, Stevenson Approach, Broom Street, Great Cornard, CO10 0JT	See above	The premises at the Wells Hall Old School are adequate. Its use would mean that a polling district with the rugby club premises as its designated polling place could only sensibly be drawn so that it included around 500 electors, ¹ leaving 2,800 to vote at Wells Hall. The number of electors served by the rugby club premises will, however, increase as more properties in the immediate area are occupied. No objection to the proposed additional facilities although it must be recognised that additional hire costs would be incurred.
HADLEIGH NORTH	Hadleigh (North Ward)	BK	That part of the civil parish of Hadleigh located north of the line formed by Holbecks Lane at the point where it intersects the parish boundary eastwards along its centre line, over Toppesfield Bridge and then northwards and eastwards along the centre of Duke Street to its junction with High Street; thence northwards along the centre line of High Street to the junction with George Street, and thence generally eastwards along George Street, Frog Hall Lane, Pond Hall Road, Valley Farm Lane and the A1071 to the point where it again meets the parish boundary.	Town Hall, Market Place, Hadleigh, IP7 5DN	Councillor Brian Riley by email - The Town Hall station works well. People are used to going there and there is adequate parking.	Supports current arrangements

HADLEIGH SOUTH	Hadleigh (South Ward)	BL	That part of the civil parish of Hadleigh south of the line described above.	St Mary's School Nursery, Stonehouse Road, Hadleigh, IP7 5BH	Mr. and Mrs. B Calver by letter. The premises are unsuitable for people with disabilities as there are two ramps which makes it difficult for an elderly person pushing a wheelchair to negotiate. Hadleigh Town Council has suggested possible alternative premises – the Seminar Suite above Hadleigh Library, rooms at the Town Hall complex, or the Ansell Centre. Councillor Brian Riley by email - would object to the polling station for Hadleigh South being co-located at the Town Hall as parking provision would be inadequate. The polling station at the school has worked quite well in recent elections. As the housing estate east of Lady Lane comes on stream, other options could be considered (even having two separate stations for Hadleigh North). St. Joseph's in Long Bessell is being	The nursery is relatively small for the number of voters but it has not experienced a problem with overcrowding, it is accessible and it benefits from very good parking facilities. Alternative premises would need to be on the ground floor in order to assist accessibility, which would rule out the use of the library and was the problem when the Grand Hall at the Town Hall was previously suggested and no other ground floor space was available. The Ansell Centre could be suitable but parking would be less plentiful than at Stonehouse Road. A community facility is to be provided adjacent to the Swimming Pool (work commences November 2011) which may afford additional space for polling facilities, without compromising the amount of parking. In the meantime, retention of the existing arrangements is supported.

					upgraded and would be a good location for voters in adjacent areas. Councillor Kathryn Grandon by email - concerned about parking if Town Hall used for both wards. Peaks and troughs in voting patterns in 2011 saw an extremely busy early evening period when many voters came by car. Also, to avoid possible confusion, two separate rooms would probably be needed. As regards St. Mary's School, the classroom was not ideal as it was small but parking, disabled access, and dedicated entrance were good points. Space could be increased if some of the bigger items belonging to the school were removed for the day. The community school in Station Road would be more convenient for many voters in Hadleigh South but parking is a problem there and it should therefore be ruled out.

SOUTH COSFORD	Aldham	AB	The Civil Parish of Aldham	Caravan, Red House Farm, The Street, Aldham, IP7 6NH		The caravan provides facilities for up to 160 voters (45.9% turnout at the last elections) but is not up to preferred standards for accessibility. However, it is necessary to balance that with convenience for voters generally, as the alternative would be the removal of the facility altogether, requiring the electors of Aldham to vote at the Elmsett & Aldham Village Hall 1.5 miles away. In the absence of any request for change at this time, the current arrangements are supported. If the Council were minded to remove the facility, electors should first be consulted

	Sudbury South (Bridge)	DF	The part of the ward (not included in DE above) East of the line southwards from Stour Street, following the centre of School Street to Friars Street and eastwards along the centre of Friars Street as far as the western perimeter of the Sports Ground and southwards and south-eastwards to the Valley Walk along the western boundary of the overflow car park at The Quay Theatre; thence eastwards along The Valley Walk and around the northern perimeter of Friars Meadow to the ward boundary with the Civil Parish of Great Cornard	The Granary, River Stour Trust Quay Lane Sudbury CO10 2AN	Sudbury Town Council by email – “Due to there not being a polling station between Cats Lane and The Granary in Quay Lane, that a possible additional location for a polling station be considered at either the Kingfisher Leisure Centre, Belle Vue House or the LEAP Centre in Cornard Road.” Councillor Nigel Bennett by email – the ward has 3 polling stations which compares favourably with neighbouring Great Cornard. If this station needs to be relocated Kingfisher is a fair alternative as it is nearer to the Cats Lane area but does not disadvantage residents from the town centre, which the LEAP Centre would.	258 out of 1004 electors (25.7%) voted at The Granary in the most recent elections while turnouts at St. Gregory’s Church Hall and at the Nursery, St Gregory’s School were 29.5% and 34%. It may not be the sole or even the main reason, but it is a 20-25 minute walk from Cats Lane to Quay Lane. Apart from its location at the south-western extremity of the polling district, The Granary is fairly short of space inside but does benefit from ample parking. The LEAP Centre in Cornard Road is more centrally located and is a new facility with some on-site parking and more spaces available nearby on-street. Belle Vue House and the Kingfisher Leisure Centre are also well-located but there is no available space at the latter and the former is not ideal in traffic management terms and has accessibility problems, particularly for wheelchair users. It is suggested that the LEAP Centre replace The Granary as the designated polling place for this polling district.
