

Dangerous Wild Animal Licence Conditions

1. No dangerous wild animals other than those specified in the schedule attached to the licence may be kept.
2. Whilst any animal is being kept under the authority of this licence:
  - a) No person other than the person or persons specified in the licence shall keep the animal.
  - b) The licence shall normally be held at such premises as are specified in the licence.
  - c) The animal shall not be moved from those premises except with the consent in writing of the Council and subject to conditions as may be specified in the consent. (Exception, see point 4 below)
  - d) The licensee shall at all times hold a current insurance policy which insures him/her and any other person entitled to keep the animal under the authority of the licence against liability for any loss, damage or injury which may be caused, by the animal.
  - e) The terms of such policy shall be satisfactory in the opinion of the Council.
  - f) Emergency services must be notified of the presence of the animals.
3. The person to whom this licence is granted shall at all reasonable times make available a copy of the licence to any person entitled to keep any animals under authority of the licence.
4. Any animal being kept under the Authority of the licence must:
  - a) be held in accommodation which secures that the animal will not escape,
  - b) which is suitable as regards construction, size, temperature, lighting, ventilation, drainage and cleanliness and which is suitable for the number of animals proposed to be held in the accommodation and provided sufficient room for exercise,
  - c) and be supplied with adequate and suitable food, drink and bedding material and be visited at suitable intervals;
  - d) appropriate steps will at all such times be taken for the protection of any animal concerned in case of fire or other emergency;
  - e) all reasonable precautions will be taken at all such times to prevent and control the spread of infectious diseases;
5. Notwithstanding condition 2(c) above, where an animal requires emergency veterinary attention and the treatment cannot be carried out at the premises, the animal may be moved from the premises at the request of a veterinary practitioner engaged by the licence holder. The animal must be transported in a vehicle suitable for the purpose.
6. Any handling of the said animals must be carried out in the presence of a trained back up handler.
