

Images to support Mark & Lucy Henson of Church Farm Statement

Map of long view positions Church Farm lane to Church Road

View 1: from Church Farm master bedroom, master bathroom & bedroom 2 windows, long views across the field – in real life the view across the main site is even more open than these photographs are able to demonstrate

View 2: from Church Farm driveway/end of garden – long views to Engry Wood and across the field in every direction

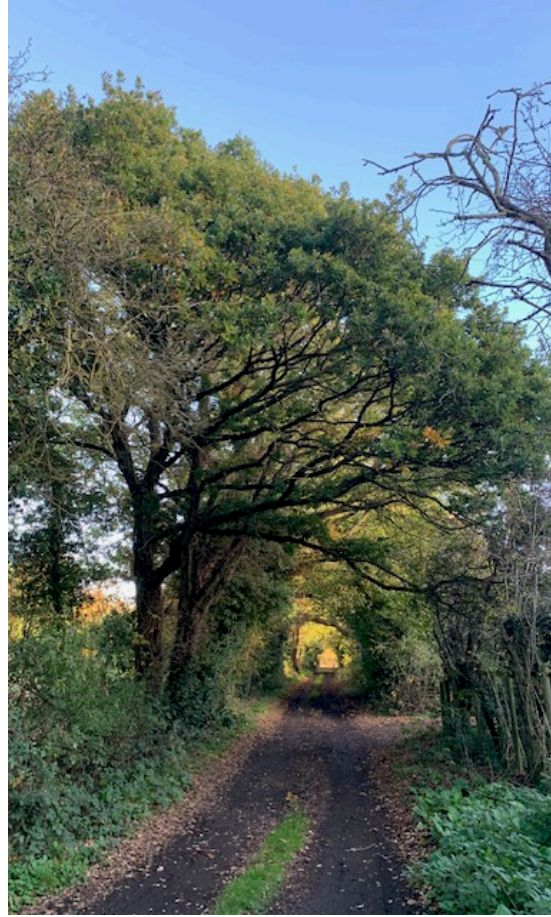

View 3: from Church Farm driveway - long views in all directions across the field

View 4: from Church Farm Lane long views at all times of year in all directions

Church Farm Lane with veteran trees

View 6: from Church Farm Lane – long views in all directions close to Little Bush, Glebe Cottage, Bentley House and St Mary's Church

View 7: From Church Road at the corner of Church Farm Lane, outside Little Bush close to St Mary's Church

From Church Road towards Engry Wood, Church Farm and Potash Lane, no screening and wide openings

From Church Road towards Engry Wood, Church Farm and Potash Lane

From corner of Church Road and Potash Lane towards St Mary's Church

These photographs were taken at a similar size solar park and show how the countryside and the views above would be dramatically altered

FROM THIS

TO THIS

This map shows how the proposed development would dominate and change the landscape

